About You

This job is not for everybody. We expect a lot. If you work here, you are motivated and ready to play a pivotal role in Ollie’s daily operations. You are happy to work on a team as well as alone. You get the promptness thing. You can work early. You can work late. You are not addicted to your cell phone. You are early, ready, and clear just about all of the time. You are passionate about the food and beverage industry. You are prepared to learn from a team that has decades of collective food service experience. Are you still reading?

What's the catch?

Well, for starters it will be hard work. We serve over a thousand students, faculty, and visitors a day!
