Whereas, the Student Life Committee is committed to actively supporting student engagement and promoting a welcoming environment for all incoming students; and

Whereas, Fall Orientation is a foundational experience for first-year students, during which peer-led enthusiasm and presence play a key role in creating a sense of belonging; and

Whereas, Chonk Nation is a spirited and well-recognized group on campus that contributes to Orientation Week by energizing students and encouraging school pride through volunteer-led initiatives; and

Whereas, Chonk Nation relies on student volunteers, known as "Chonkers," to help execute events, build community, and serve as positive representatives of campus culture; and

Whereas, members of the Student Life Committee are well-positioned to serve in this capacity and lead by example in showing support for student-driven initiatives;

Be it resolved, that all members of the Student Life Committee commit to volunteering as "Chonkers" with Chonk Nation during Fall Orientation 2025; and

Be it further resolved, that the Committee will encourage its members to attend any required training or planning meetings hosted by Chonk Nation prior to Orientation Week; and

Be it further resolved, that the Student Life committee members will get the perks of being chonkers during their time supporting Fall Orientation, including a CCR credit and a chance for monthly giveaways

Be it further resolved, that this participation be recognized as an extension of the Committee's mission to promote student life and support incoming students during their transition to university life.

Moved: W. Louima

Seconded: C. Zhang
