Faculty of Arts and Social Science (FASS) CUSA Councillor

DESCRIPTION

The Carleton University Students' Association council is where decisions about the association are made. Council is made up of 25 Faculty representatives and members of the Rideau River Residence Association (RRRA) and the Graduate Students' Association (GSA). Faculty representatives are student's voice for their issues.

Councillors will attend council meetings to represent their faculty once a month for one calendar year (May 2020 –April 2021).

HOW TO APPLY

In order to run for this position, candidates must fill out the Councillor Application Form with their personal information. Candidates must get at least 12 signatures from students in the Faculty of Arts and Social Science (tip: get more than 12 in case some are not verified). Candidates can obtain signatures by asking nominators to submit through the online form here: <https://forms.gle/8e1CZo5eqCe5BBme9>. All signatures submitted through the nomination link are sent directly to CUSA so no further action is necessary.

Candidates will be notified if their signatures are successfully verified via email. If they are, they are invited to attend council to present a speech about why they would like to fill the position and how they are qualified. If they are unable to attend, they can send their speech to vpi@cusaonline.ca and the Vice President Internal will read on their behalf.

These positions are voted in by CUSA council and are unpaid volunteer positions. Council will vote and elect the new FASS Councillor(s) at the next Council meeting.
