

Special Student CUSA Councillor

DESCRIPTION

The Carleton University Students' Association is where decisions about the association are made. Council is made up of 25 Faculty representatives and members of the Rideau River Residence Association (RRRA) and the Graduate Students' Association (GSA). Faculty representatives are student's voice for their issues.

Councillors will attend council meetings to represent their faculty once a month for one calendar year (May 2019–April 2020).

HOW TO APPLY

In order to run for the position, candidates must fill out the Councillor Application form with their personal information. Candidates must get at least 12 signatures from students in any Faculty (tip: get more than 12 in case some are not verified). Candidates can obtain signatures on a hard copy nomination form or by getting nominators to submit through the online form here: <https://form.jotform.com/91215848021250>.

All forms and signatures must be submitted by Tuesday, May 21st at 6pm. The Councillor Application Form and hardcopy Nomination Form can be submitted to the office or sent via email to vpi@cusaonline.ca. All signatures submitted through the nomination link are directly sent to CUSA so no further action is necessary.

Candidates will be notified if their signatures are successfully verified via email. If they are, they are invited to attend council Wednesday, May 22nd at 6pm to present a speech about why they would like to fill the position and how they are qualified. If they are unable to attend, they can send their speech to vpi@cusaonline.ca before Tuesday, May 21st and the Vice President Internal will read on their behalf.

Council will then vote and elect the new Special Student Councillor at the Council meeting on May 22nd at 6pm, 608 Robertson Hall.
